Mr.RajendraDeore suggested installing himax lights on the jogging track of the playground where the senior citizens come at night and early in the morning where there is a little light loss from one side. Dr.Bhadane suggested that after discussing this, himax lamps are quite expensive and see how much they cost. But Mr. Dinesh Deore and KautikPawar said that they should investigate whether any expenditure is being received from the MLA funds and requested the MLAs to install Himax lights on the playground as well as for the farmers going to Pawar Farm. It was decided that Deore should follow up with the MLAs and give a report on this in the next meeting. Also, Mr.KautikPawar suggested that the competitive exam centre should be updated in the college. After discussing it in detail, Mr. Dinesh Deore said that after visiting the study centre run by honourable MLAs going on at Deola. In order to make study centre, the college must visit and how it should be, the arrangement of furniture, chairs and cupboards should be inspected. And after getting an idea, we should purchase books, folding chairs, tables, cupboards and other things. The care should be taken that the books should not get lost. All the purchasing should not be done at a time, but we can purchase from time to time as we feel it necessary. Thus, it was unanimously approved in this meeting for the expenditure of two lakhs of rupees.

Topic number 4. Topics to be discussed with the permission of Hon. President.

Dr.RajendraGunjal suggested that Dr.JaywantBhadane, the professor of the college, was elected to the Member of Economics Board of SavitribaiPhule Pune University. Everyone congratulated him for that and he was felicitated by Vice Principal V.M. Joshi Sir. The meeting was held in a spirited atmosphere Dr. V.K. Wahule thanked everyone and announced that the meeting was over with the permission of the President.

No any subject for discussion therefore the meeting is over to permission to hon. precedent.
